METHOD APPARATUS FOR SELF-VALIDATING CHECKSUMS IN A FILE SYSTEM

Abstract

A method for storing a data block, involving storing the data block in a storage pool, obtaining a data block location, calculating a data block checksum for the data block, and storing a first indirect block in the storage pool, wherein the first indirect block comprises the data block location and the data block checksum.

64041_4